

CULTURE AND MEDIA

The Foundation considers the media to be a critical partner in achieving comprehensive and sustainable development. The media plays a key role in raising public awareness, influencing public opinion, and analyzing the options available to policy makers.

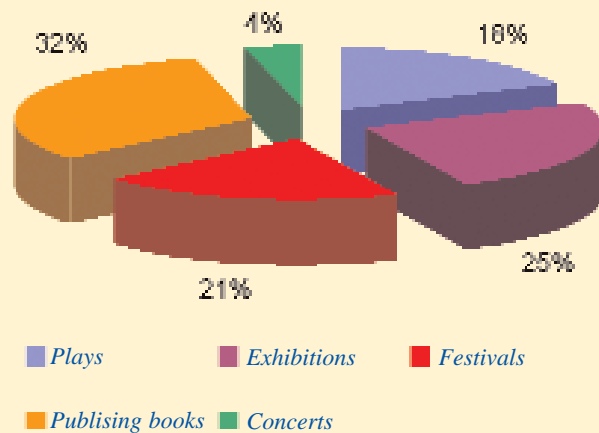

Cultural Activities

The Safadi Foundation organized a number of cultural activities, including plays, art exhibitions, publishing books, and holding concerts and festivals.

The most prominent cultural/artistic activities included:

- Publishing the book "Encounters Around the Mediterranean," which documented the experiences of 18 Lebanese students who took a trip to Morocco;
- Sponsoring the Second Exhibition of Young Talent, organized by the Artisans' Workshop. Thirteen painters and artists of different ages took part in the exhibition;
- Sponsoring an exhibition of French artists entitled "30 Years of French Print Art," organized by the French Cultural Mission; and

Distribution of cultural activities

"Journey to Morocco", a part of the book "Encounters Around the Mediterranean."

Exhibition of French print art

Other Foundation Resources

The publication "al-Mushir"

The Safadi Foundation has been issuing a monthly newsletter "al-Mushir" since 2001. Each issue has a circulation of approximately 10,000 copies.

The newsletter describes the achievements and activities of the Safadi Foundation in the fields of social issues, culture, sports, education and agriculture, and summarizes key Foundation activity in all sectors.

The Foundation's website: www.safadi-foundation.org

A website for the Foundation has been developed (www.safadi-foundation.org) so that visitors can be continually updated with information and news about the Foundation's activities. Since it was established at the end of 2001, the site has attracted approximately 60,000 visitors.

The Safadi Foundation website